

JU's Exit Exam Success Story 2020 College of Law and Governance Law School

As per the Ethiopian Law degree curriculum (LL.B), every graduating student is required to sit for National Law Exit Exam with the aim to assess students' educational achievement in the courses of the major area of program study. This has been implemented since 2011 and the exam is intended to measure the learning outcomes of the program as a whole and passing the exam is a precondition to be awarded a law degree.

Jimma University Law School has been examining its graduating students since the exam started. And the School has a good track record in having its students passing the exam. In particular, the numbers of students who score the cut point and pass for the exam in the past five years indicate that there is a significant improvement overtime. This year's pass rate, as compared to previous successive years, has shown this significant improvement.

For comparison, the statistics of the previous years has been outlined as follows:
